MRS. CARTER RUSSELL

Mrs. Carter Russell and Pod Rogers told Hope Lions Monday of their respective trips to the east coast and west coast in which Hope received good publicity.

Mrs. Russell gave an account of the Hope Group which traveled by chartered bus to the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City. The reason for the trip was to support "Miss Arkansas" Donna Connelly, a Hope girl.

The tour group left early on Labor Day and allowed themselves time to tour the Congress buildings, the White House and other points of interest in Washington, D.C. and many tourist attractions in New York City including the Rockefeller Center, Chinatown, the Bowery, United Nations building, the Rainbow Room and other places.

Mr. Rogers, Hope's watermelon goodwill ambassador, then related his and Carter Russell's trip to Los Angeles in which Hope's famed watermelons were featured on the TV program, "Let's Make a Deal."

Transporting a big load of melons across the country and caring for them creates its own problems and the men indeed found a friend in the person of Wayne Lamb at the Farmers Market who furnished cold storage for them the past two years.

They visited a number of

No Action on Education Aid Distribution

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislative Council Monday did not accept or reject a proposed formula for distributing state aid to education.

The council voted to ask the state Education Department to distribute copies of the proposal to school districts and other interested persons.

Sen. Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff suggested that legislators consult with school officials to discuss the report and arrange for hearings with school personnel later. No date was specified.

State Sen. Robert Harvey of Swift presented the report to the council. He was chairman of a special 30-member committee appointed by state Education Commissioner A. W. Ford to evaluate the 1969 school distribution formula law and propose improvements.

The proposed formula is basically the same as the previous one. However, an equalization formula did not take effect in the previous law until each school district received 102 per cent of the funds distributed in the previous year, but the formula would be in effect in the new proposal at the beginning of the distribution.

The previous equalization formula was practically meaningless since state revenues for school aid amounted to only slightly more than the guaranteed 102 per cent, which had to be reached before the formula took effect.

Under the proposed new formula, districts would be guaranteed at least the same amount of aid as in the previous year, but the equalization formula would be a factor affecting the distribution of increased revenue for school aid.

Fair Skies and Mild Temperatures

Fair skies and mild temperatures are expected in Arkansas through Wednesday.

High pressure, with a center over Southeastern Texas, promises to produce afternoon temperatures in the 70s and cool evenings.

There are no new fronts in sight as far as the Arkansas weather picture is concerned and little change is expected the next few days.

A low pressure trough which produced some precipitation moved eastward out of the state Monday evening.

Nixon Fashions Taunts of Young Hecklers Into a Political Weapon

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP) — President Nixon is fashioning the taunts and jeers of youthful hecklers into part of the political weaponry as he campaigns for Republicans battling to take over Democratic seats in the Senate.

His targets today: Tennessee, Indiana and North Carolina.

Shouting knots of protesters have provided a backdrop for the Nixon law and order message at every stop so far on his six-state campaign swing, and the President is telling voters to retort with Republican ballots in the Nov. 3 elections.

"I say don't answer in kind," Nixon declared. "You don't have to shout four letter obscenities ... On Nov. 3 in the quiet of the polling booth consider the candidates, consider their record the year around and if the candidate has given encouragement to, has condoned lawlessness and violence and permissiveness, then, you know what to do."

That was Nixon's advice Monday to a campaign crowd in Columbus, Ohio. At a wind-swept rally in Grand Forks, N.D., he urged, "the great silent majority of this country to stand up and be counted ..."

"Remember, the four letter word that is the most powerful of all the four letters in the world is vote."

In Kansas City, where admission to a campaign rally was by ticket and the demonstrators were kept outside, Nixon stressed the same theme.

Nixon headed today for Johnson City, Tenn., there to campaign for Rep. William Brock III, who is challenging Democratic Sen. Albert Gore, and for Winfield K. Dunn, the Memphis dentist running for governor.

In Asheville, N.C. Nixon will campaign in behalf of Republican congressional candidates. There is no Senate race there. The North Carolina congressional lineup is seven Democrats, four Republicans.

In Indiana, his mission is to aid Rep. Richard L. Roudebush, a Republican locked in a tough, close contest against Democratic Sen. Vance Hartke.

Law and order, and the problem of campus turmoil, is a key issue there too.

It was a major theme in Nixon's campaign stops in Columbus, in behalf of Rep. Robert Taft Jr., the Senate nominee, and Roger Cloud, campaigning for governor; in Grand Forks, to boost the campaign of Rep. Thomas Kleppe against Democratic Sen. Quentin N. Burdick; and in Kansas City in behalf of John C. Danforth, the Missouri attorney general, running against Democratic Sen. Stuart Symington.

In Columbus, a White House spokesman said police estimated the statehouse plaza crowd at 40,000 to 50,000. Nixon himself claimed 100,000 people were on hand. In Grand Forks, the White House said an estimated 8,000 people turned out. In Kansas City, there were more than 11,000 people in the Municipal Auditorium.

"All over this country today we see a rising tide of terrorism, of crime, and on the campuses of our universities we have seen those who instead of engaging in peaceful dissent, engage in violence, try to shout down speakers with obscene words," Nixon said. "My friends it is time to draw the line and say we are not going to stand for that."

"... I welcome the fact that we have some who express disagreement ..." Nixon said in

Texarkana for Constitution

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — The Texarkana City Board of Directors Monday night adopted a resolution endorsing the proposed new constitution.

The resolution said the new document would be a "substantial improvement" over the present 1874 Constitution.

The proposed document will be voted on in the November general election.

Grand Forks. "I can handle it. Don't worry about it. Go right ahead."

At each step, Nixon said only a minority of young Americans engages in violence for disruptive demonstrations. "The younger generation has been given a bad name by a few violent demonstrators. They do not speak for youth and they do not speak for America."

That drew a long, standing ovation in Kansas City.

In Columbus, Nixon paid a surprise 20-minute visit to the campus of Ohio State University and drew an instant crowd of about 1,000 students, with only a scattering of dissidents.

year-olds.

"I was troubled by this for quite a while," Griswold said about the voting-age change, but said he had resolved it in his own mind.

"Must a line be drawn some place?" Griswold asked. "Of course it must. The question is whether Congress can draw the line."

The solicitor general said enforcement clauses in the Constitution give Congress power to assure citizens "equal protection of the laws."

President Nixon had asked for an early court test of the law, which also suspends literacy tests for five years and abolishes residency requirements of more than 30 days for presidential elections.

To assure the test the Justice Department sued Arizona and Idaho to force compliance. Texas and Oregon filed suits asking the court to declare the law unconstitutional.

Monday's spirited arguments came down to a contest between the authority of states against that of Congress.

SW Bell to Spend $230,000 in Hope Area

Construction is currently under way in the Hope area for providing suburban telephone service to rural customers.

The project, part of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's plans for improved service in Hope, will have a gross expenditure of about $230,000.

Manager Jack Bayles of Southwestern Bell said construction on the project, which includes burying several thousand feet of cable, would be completed next year.

"By improving facilities, we expect to provide better service to rural customers in the Hope exchange," Bayles said.

"Southwestern Bell is proud again to be part of the progress in Hope."

Bayles said the project will give improved service for all rural customers within a three mile limit of Hope's telephone exchange base rate area.

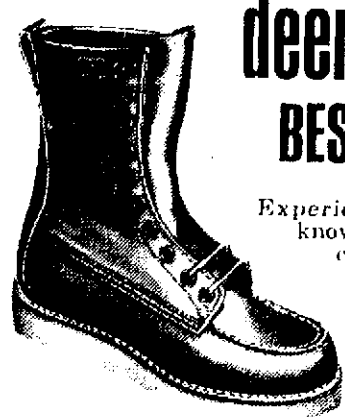

"We will be burying cable on South Main Street, Patmos Road, Rocky Mountain Road, and Highways 4 South, 29 South, 32, 67 East and 174," he said.

The project will benefit customers by placing cable for better service in the rural area the manager said, and by burying the cable, chances are lessened of having service interruptions due to adverse weather conditions.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There may have been some conflict in the nation's living rooms Monday night on the subject of entertainment.

On ABC, the Oakland Raiders were battling the Washington Redskins—a good, live men's pro football show. On NBC was "The Other Man," a two-hour feature made for television which was a tale of illicit passion and revenge, right up any drama-loving woman's alley.

"The Other Man" was the season's first "World Premiere" program and was a cut above the average. It was fat with plot and good acting. It had some marvelous photography and was filmed largely on the scenic Monterey peninsula.

Joan Hackett, played the slightly neurotic wife of a busy lawyer—Arthur Hill—and, between group therapy classes began an affair with a mysterious playboy named Johnny Brant.

At the time she decided to leave her husband for her lover, played by Roy Thinnes, Brant was murdered in his isolated

DON'T FENCE HIM IN
Dear Helen:
Dave is 18, I'm 16. We've been sort of pre-engaged for seven years. We'll be married when we're through school.

Last week he met a girl who says she likes him and she's trying to break us up. He still says he loves me and wants to keep on going with me. But he also wants to see this other girl. He figures it won't last long, as he thinks what he feels is pity for her.

Helen, he's taking her to the dance Saturday night while I stay home. He's going to spend the day with me, however. I pretend that I don't mind, and I've told Dave I'll wait until he gets over this, but inside, I'm falling apart.

Am I playing it right? — GETTING HURT
Dear G.H.:

You're playing it sweet and kind, but I'm not sure you're playing it RIGHT. In seven months you two should have gone past pretense and into honesty. Yet Dave comes up with the "pity" bit, while you hide your true feelings.

Why don't you level with each other? Let Dave know that, although you understand, you are also hurtin'—and perhaps the best way to face this is HIS way: By dating someone else. Can you scare up an "ex" on home. The plot then swung abruptly away from grand passion and concentrated on suspense. Our heroine, suspecting her husband was the killer, left him and bought the dead man's home.

So there she was, alone in the big house, a terrible storm raging outside, the lights gone and all sorts of strange people prowling around—standard, old-fashioned thriller stuff.

It had a complicated trick ending, a bit of a let-down, and a number of important ends were left untied.

It had, however, pace and polish, and no effort was needed to stay awake for the windup.

Evidence is accumulating that the public prefers old TV friends to new acquaintances. With few exceptions, new series on all three networks are not as popular as returning programs.

short notice?
When the four of you meet at the dance, well—could be you'll change partners...especially if you keep on playing it honest. — H.

Dear Helen:
I thought I was in good with this girl but now I am crushed. A couple of days before a dance which I was planning to ask her to, a guy comes up to me and says, "Hey, did you say you liked Alice?" Well, I just had a class with her and she said she hates you." This is like walking into an elevator without the elevator.

So, I resorted to a method of finding out what the scoop is which has produced disastrous results. I asked this same guy to find out what I did wrong. But now I hear he is famous for practical jokes. Worry time!

Do I trust him, or what? I'm shyer than a rabbit in a panther cage, so I have to depend on friends. —ALL FOULED UP
Dear All:

Forget "bad rumor men," call Alice up and ask her to the next dance. If she accepts, you're in...And on the way home, casually mention that practical joker. If she doesn't accept—well, maybe HE'S taking her. So try a couple of rumors yourself and let him do the worrying.

And don't give up without trying! Remember—she liked you first! —H.

Dear Helen:

I'm 15 and just plain stupid. To get even with my sister, I sneaked out with her boy friend who is 17. Now I'm pregnant. At least I think I am, though it only happened once—and it was all my fault. I don't hate my sister any more—I just hate myself. How can I ever break it to her and my folks? And what do I do now? —HELP!

Dear Help:
You're probably suffering from fear and guilt—but not pregnancy. And if, as you say, it was all your fault, then learn from this hard lesson and keep quiet. You'd hurt others much more than yourself if you told.

If you ARE pregnant, your parents must know so that they can help you. Send me a stamped self-addressed envelope and I'll provide a list of counseling services in your area. —H.

B Team in Victory at Ashdown

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Last night at Ashdown, the Hope B-Bruins shutout the Panthers, 8-0, in a rugged defensive battle, for their third victory.

The Bruins now own a 4-1 record and travel to Arkadelphia next Monday.

Hope received the opening kickoff and began play from their own 33 yard line. Moving to the Ashdown 44, the Bruins were forced to punt, and a trio of onrushing Panther linemen blocked the kick, and when the whistle blew the ball dead, Ashdown had a first and ten at the Hope 20 yard stripe.

The Panthers drove to the six before Kenneth Ellis intercepted in the end zone and ran back to the four. Two first downs moved the Bruins to their own 35, but a fourth down play backfired on a missed punting snap and Ashdown was in business again at the Hope 28.

Later, Hope recovered a Panther fumble with 1:57 left in the half, but could go nowhere giving up ground. At half both teams had played to a scoreless deadlock.

The second half saw a little more offensive action, with both teams having fairly good running success.

Ashdown took the kick and four plays later punted to the Bruin 34 yard line. Hope began to move, using a pass from quarterback Tommy Frazier to Ricky Hart, mixed in the running of David Johnson.

On the first play Tommy Miller ground out eight yards and then Johnson used his good blocking to the Ashdown 35. However, after drawing a major penalty, Hope failed to pick up lost yardage and punted.

A few minutes later, Mike Downs recovered a key fumble on the Hope 27, to stop a Panther drive with 5:47 left in the game.

On the first play at that point Johnson broke loose for a 33 yard run to the Ashdown 40 and two plays later he cut up through the middle and galloped 34 yards for the only touchdown all night.

Frazier then ran around right end for the two point conversion and with 4:09 left in the game, the Bruins led 8-0. That's the way it ended.

The defense has to be credited with an outstanding job, holding Ashdown deep in Bruin territory on a few drives, while the offense finally broke the ice late in the game.

NEW YORK (AP) — The inaugural Empire Standardbred Yearling Sale was held Monday at Madison Square Garden with 93 head going for $611,500, an average of $6,575. Departure, a pacing son of Romeo Hanover, brought the highest price, $33,000.

Ralph Houk Is Named Top Manager

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (P) — Yankee skipper Ralph Houk was stunned momentarily at being named American League Manager of the Year and then hinted New York just might win it all in 1971.

"If I didn't figure we had a chance," said Houk, "I wouldn't ever put on a uniform."

Baltimore overwhelmed the AL's Eastern Division in 1970 and skipped away with the World Series. Despite the Orioles' accomplishments, Earl Weaver failed again to be named the No. 1 manager.

"I assumed it would be Earl," Houk said. "Baltimore won everything in sight. But, if the Yankees deserve the honor, it should go to the ballplayers and not me."

Houk took a floundering expowhouse and finished second by winning 93 games. The former army major believes only a slight improvement might shove aside the "Big Bird Machine."

"I believe that winning 100 games might do it next year," he said, "because Detroit will be a lot better, Boston will improve and Cleveland has got to get better with the young talent the Indians have."

Houk received 118 votes to Weaver's 73 in a nationwide Associated Press poll of sports-writers and broadcasters. Bill Rigney of the Western Division champion Minnesota Twins received 50, Lefty Phillips of the California Angels got 32, Milwaukee's Dave Bristol got three and Washington's Ted Williams two.

It was rookie skipper Williams who nudged Weaver for Manager of the Year honors in 1969 after Baltimore won the pennant and was socked by the New York Mets in the World Series.

Houk was readying his sleek fishing boat for the warm pleasures of a Florida winter when the news came by telephone. "It's due to kids like Bill Munson, Johnny Ellis and a lot of experienced hands like Danny Cater, Bobby Murcer and Roy White," he said. "We've got a new thing going with the Yankees—not so much muscle, but a lot of fellows who can hit 15-20 homers for you."

F. Robinson, Cepeda on Trade Block

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball teams, hoping to land that player who'll put them in the winner's circle, begin wheeling and dealing today as the interleague trading period begins.

A flurry of intra-league trading activity before and during the World Series indicated more to come in the trading period between the American and National leagues ending Dec. 15.

Among names mentioned in possible trades are Frank Robinson, the Baltimore Orioles' fence-breaking outfielder; Pittsburgh's outfielder Matty Alou; Orlando Cepeda, Atlanta's much-traveled slugger and hard-hitting catcher Tim McCarver of Philadelphia.

Richie Allen, Denny McClain and Tony Conigliaro have already changed uniforms and the services of controversial Curt Flood are being bid for by the Washington Senators.

Owner Bob Short of Washington has already given Philadelphia an unnamed player for the right to talk contract with Flood, the outfielder who sat out last season while challenging baseball's reserve clause in the courts.

The outfielder-rich Orioles reportedly are ready to deal the 35-year-old Robinson for some pitching help to go along with their Big Three of Dave McNally, Mike Cuellar and Jim Palmer.

The Braves might be ready to part with Cepeda, now with his third team, in exchange for some pitching help and the New York Mets have shown an interest in McCarver and possibly could deal one of their young pitchers for him.

Harahan Takes Lead in Pro Bowling Meet

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP) — Tim Harahan averaged a shade over 223 pins in the 12 games he rolled Monday to take the lead after two rounds in the $75,000 national championship of the Professional Bowlers Association.

Another 12 games Tuesday will reduce the field to the 96 high scorers who will enter the quarter-finals. They'll shoot another 12-game block and at that time the case will be cut to the 24 semifinalists who start match-game play.

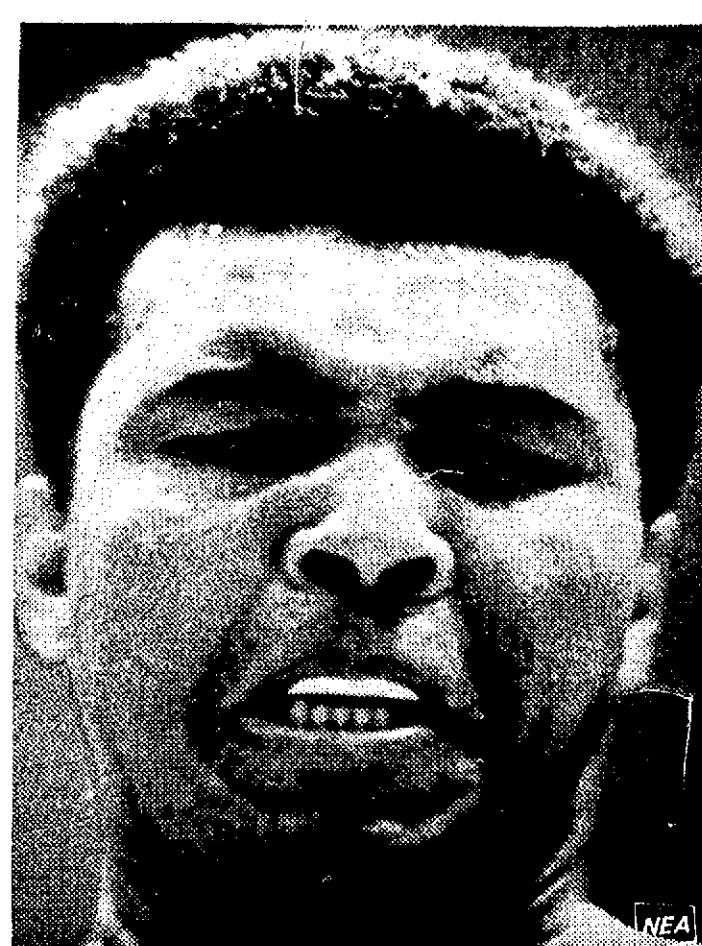

From that segment will come the five men who will battle it out on television next Saturday for the $7,500 first-place prize.

Ali, Quarry Agreed to Score System

ATLANTA (AP) — The New York state system rounds will be used for the 15-round fight between former heavyweight champion Muhammad Ali and Jerry Quarry here next Monday night.

Both fighters agreed Monday to that scoring system, using the 10-point must provision only in the event of a draw.

Still to be determined, however, is whether championship rules allowing unlimited knockdowns will be used or whether the fight will be stopped in the event of three knockdowns in one round.

NAME OF ALI'S GAME is strain as the former heavyweight champion works to overcome effects of a three-year layoff for his comeback bout against Jerry Quarry in Atlanta Oct. 26.

Raiders in Win Over Redskins

OAKLAND (AP) — The Oakland Raiders started the season looking like pro football's sleeping giant.

They're awake now, thanks to Hewitt Dixon's thunderous running and the touchdown bombs of quarterback Daryle Lamonic.

The Raiders won their second National Football League game Monday night by overpowering the Washington Redskins 34-20 before a national television audience.

"The thing that worries me now is that no one has won a Monday night game and won the following Sunday," Coach John Madden of Oakland said later.

Madden's team impressed Redskins Coach Bill Austin as one with "excellent speed and a good quarterback. Of course, anybody's a good quarterback when he gets time to show."

Monday night's game was the first regular season test for the Raiders against one of the old NFL clubs. Dixon's 164 yards rushing and Lamonic's three touchdown passes made it a great show for the sellout crowd of 54,471.

Afterward, Madden talked like he'd been surprised by his team's power.

"We thought we had to start slow. It was a feeling out process for both teams because we'd never played each other," he said.

But an early break — a center snap over the head of Washington punter Mike Bragg — gave the Raiders the football at the Redskins' 39-yard line. Dixon swept to the left, cut back and scored on the Raiders' first play of the game.

Lamonic threw the first of two touchdown passes to Warren Wells shortly after and rattled the Redskins' secondary for 222 yards in the game.

Sonny Jurgensen of the Redskins matched Lamonic's passing yardage and threw touchdown passes to Charley Taylor and Jerry Smith. But Redskins runners netted just 77 yards.

Dixon, who averaged 9.1 yards a carry, was awarded the game ball by the Raiders but said he wasn't satisfied with his play.

"I missed six or seven blocks out there," he said.

Dixon now leads American Conference runners, with 369 yards. Charlie Smith, who ran for 61 yards against the Skins, has 306.

First Lady of Racing World Dies at 87

NEW YORK (AP) — The racing world mourned today the passing of Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps, the first lady of the American turf.

Mrs. Phipps, the matriarch of the Phipps family, one of the most prestigious in thoroughbred racing, died Monday at her home in Roslyn on Long Island. She was 87.

A familiar figure at Belmont Park, Aqueduct and Saratoga where her horses ran in her Wheatley Stable silks, Mrs. Phipps was a pioneer among women owner-breeders.

Idle Porks Take Over 9th Spot

by KEN APPOPOST
Associated Press Sports Writer

That old bowl magic's got Ara Parseghian in its spell. "The bowl games might very well decide the national champion again this year," says Parseghian, who obviously puts his Notre Dame team in the picture with Ohio State and Texas.

And why not? Notre Dame is No. 3 again this week behind front-running Ohio State and No. 2 Texas in The Associated Press' college football poll.

Parseghian wouldn't mind clearing up some of the poll business earlier by playing Ohio State in regular season—but the Buckeyes won't have any part of it.

"We've tried to add Ohio State to our schedule," Parseghian told The Associated Press Monday night. "But they've refused."

Coach Woody Hayes of the Buckeyes reached by telephone later, admitted: "I have not been interested in adding Notre Dame to the schedule."

Ohio State continued to lead the rankings with 668 points from a panel of sports writers and broadcasters throughout the country. Texas had 630 points and Notre Dame 585.

Rounding out the Top Ten were Nebraska; Michigan; Auburn; Air Force; Stanford; Arkansas and Southern California.

Parseghian obviously wants that No. 1 ranking.

He believes in Poll Power. "The polls are great, they give you the relative strength of the teams around the country," he says, putting down those who say polls are not the true measure of a team's worth.

"We all recognize that on any given Saturday anything can happen. No. 1 can lose to No. 19—it's part of the game. But it doesn't mean polls are not accurate."

The Top Twenty teams, with first-place votes in parentheses, and total points. Points tabulated on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9 etc.:

Namath Hurt and So Are N.Y. Jets

NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Namath is in pain... and the New York Jets are hurting. The Jets' star quarterback, one of their few offensive threats this season, was nursing a broken bone in his right wrist today and will probably miss this Sunday's National Football League game with Buffalo.

Namath, despite the injury suffered in Sunday's game with Baltimore, was optimistic. "We'll wait until the doctor sees it—maybe there's some type of cast they can put on it and I can play this week," said the floppy-haired Jets' gem.

But Coach Weeb Ewbank appeared more realistic. "It just shows what type of competitor Joe is," said Ewbank, indicating there was little chance the right-hand throwing Namath would play.

Ewbank, in fact, said the Jets will call up a quarterback from the taxi squad, Bob Davis. Formerly with the New York Giants and Houston Oilers, Davis had been playing with the Jersey Jets of the Atlantic Coast Football League.

With Namath out Sunday, the starting assignment would probably fall to second-year quarterback Al Woodall.

Pacers Show Their Firing Power Early

By MIKE HARRIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The Indiana Pacers are showing their firepower but coach Bob Leonard says it is much too early to be calling the Hoosier team a shoe-in for a repeat American Basketball Association title.

The Pacers, led by veteran Mel Daniels' 31 points, roared to their fourth victory of the season without defeat Monday night in the only professional basketball game scheduled in either major league.

The 123-97 triumph over the tenacious Floridians followed the pattern of the first three victories of the Pacers opening

Snell Optimistic on Career

Injury 'Like a Natural Death'

By IRA BERKOW
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Room 247 in the Lenox Hill Hospital was filled and emptied and filled again with friends, reporters and television men bearing television cameras. There were also several bouquets of flowers for the patient, Matt Snell. The room resembled a locker room at times, though it did not smell like one. And Snell, with a consistent smile, gave no hint that what had begun like a "Cinderella year" had ended "with my whole world crashing down on me."

Snell had been the leading rusher in pro football. He had gained 88 yards in 22 carries against the Buffalo Bills before he was whirled out of bounds on a left-end sweep in the final quarter and tore the Achilles' heel tendon in his right foot.

In the locker room afterward, he sat on a stool and sobbed.

"I'm finished, doc," he said to New York Jet team doctor James Nicholas. "My career's finished."

"No, it's not," replied the doctor. And he cited the cases of Les Josephson of the Los Angeles Rams and Rosey Grier of the Rams and Dick Barnett, the New York Knicks' basketball player. He mentioned Snell's former teammate, Clyde Washington. All of them suffered a similar injury and came back.

Five years ago, Snell would have been right. An injury of that nature would have terminated his career.

"Now," said Snell, "the doctor is optimistic. After the operation, he said that my career depends on two things, how hard I work in rehabilitation and Mother Nature."

"In the last five years, medical techniques have made terrific advancements in this area. Funny, in two years an Achilles' rupture might just seem like a sprain."

He lay in bed with a short, heavy, leg cast ("It must weigh 15 pounds, at least") propped upon a strange apparatus. He wigged his black toes, flecked with plaster bits like rice sprinkled on a chocolate cake, to demonstrate his flexibility.

"It was so strange," he said. "My leg had been wrapped before the game. And I had no pain, no inkling of soreness. But when I got spun out of bounds, the doctor said that I landed just perfectly for an injury. My weight was perfectly distributed, my body temperature was ideal, the ground was just hard enough that, when I landed, it ripped."

"The doctor said that I would have hurt it with all those factors if I had just jumped out of bed."

"It was like a natural death. No excuses. No way to prevent it. No way to prepare for it."

Snell, 29, was having his finest season since his rookie year, seven years ago, when he gained 948 yards rushing. He felt that with his rushing, Joe Namath's passing and the jelling of the team, the Jets could again go to the Super Bowl, which they won in 1969. Snell starred in that upset win over the Baltimore Colts.

"I've played football for a long time," he said. "High school, college, the pros. You always know that one day you'll have to get out of it. But you like to pick that time. I know I've got several good seasons left."

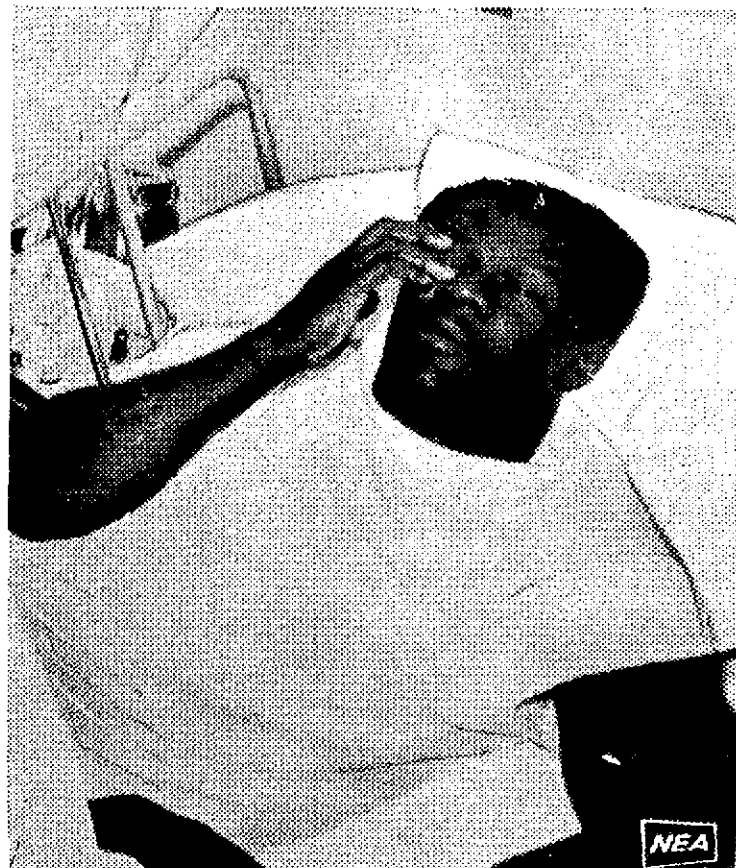

But during the off-season I'd go to banquets and people were asking me how much longer I was going to play. What the hell, I thought to myself, I'm not even 30 years old. I'll show 'em this year."

"And everything went right. I was having my best year

yet. It was a Cinderella year. Then... this. But it's only the season that's gone, not necessarily my career. Dick Barnett called me and told me that. So did my friend, Clyde Washington.

West Germany Leading in Jumping Meet

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — West Germany has made it look easy in taking a commanding lead in the international jumping at the 25th Pennsylvania National Horse Show and their coach thinks they may get better.

"There are many days ahead," said Gustav Pfordte Monday night after German riders finished first, third and fifth in the second round of competition. "We are aiming at Friday's Nation's Cup."

His smile indicated he thought Germany would win the cup to add to its impressive collection in a bid for a second consecutive World Equestrian Championship.

BELLEVILLE, Ont. (AP) — R. Yankee Wann, Canada's leading money-winning pacer with earnings of $208,000, died Sunday of an intestinal disorder. The 7-year-old horse had won $61,000 in 30 starts this season.

Interference Rule Rapped by Prothro

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA Football Coach Tommy Prothro doesn't like the way the college pass interference rule is being interpreted this year. As he sees it, "It's nearly impossible to play pass defense any more."

Prothro's team won a thriller from California 24-21 Saturday and two fourth-quarter key pass interference calls against the Golden Bears allowed Prothro's Bruins the life they needed. UCLA quarterback Dennis Dummit scored the go-ahead touch-down with four seconds to play.

"The game is out of control," Prothro said jokingly Monday, referring to his team's last four games, all won in the final seconds—and only two of them by the Bruins. Then he turned serious.

"The way I understand the pass interference rule, when the ball was in the air, everyman had a right to go for it. But the new interpretation says that if the defensive man bumps the offensive man in the act of trying to intercept, that's interference. It's getting so it's nearly impossible to play pass defense any more."

The NCAA Rulebook says: "Contact by any opponent which interferes with an eligible receiver—defensive players included—beyond the neutral zone is pass interference. However, players are not guilty of interference when making a simultaneous and bona fide effort to reach the ball."

The rule protects the defender from being charged with interference while trying for the ball but the NCAA rules committee issued a new interpretation this year. It calls for an interference penalty if the defender "plays through" or bumps the receiver, even if he is going for the ball.

Prothro said: "I've heard of a defensive man leaping up and intercepting the ball cleanly but when he landed back on the ground, he bumped the receiver and that is now ruled interference."

"It also means you can't hold up a receiver at the line of scrimmage with a brush block because that would be interference. I guess I'm like all old timers: I'd like it the way it was when I was growing up."

Jim Stangeland, coach at Long Beach State, agreed with Prothro.

Craig Fertig, Southern California assistant coach and USC's all-time leading passing leader, said, "Yes, the defense is at a disadvantage. I wish I could have thrown with that interpretation in effect. It's a distinct advantage for the offense."

Arkansas College Head Talks Here

Dr. R. W. Wygle, Arkansas College President, addressed alumni and friends of the college in Hope at an informational dinner designed to keep friends of the college abreast of current and future development and planning.

The dinner was held in connection with the Progress Fund '70-'71 for Arkansas College. Don Coefield, the College's Area 9 Chairman, presided over the meeting.

Dr. Wygle made reference to past achievements of Arkansas College and told the group of the college's perspective plan for the '70's.

He also told of the financial assistance being given to the students. "Approximately 155 students from Arkansas are now receiving financial aid at AC," he said. "And a total of 185 students out of 297 full time students are receiving some sort of financial help."

Arkansas College in Batesville has a total enrollment of 398 students.

In stressing the priorities of the Progress Fund for '70, Dr. Wygle said that of the $247,900 needed, $160,000 will be used for student aid and $87,900 will be used for program enrichment. Income produced through the Progress Fund is comparable to the amount of revenue ordinarily resulting from invested en-

House Won't Release My Lai Testimony

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman F. Edward Hebert says he won't release a word of the secret My Lai testimony given his House subcommittee—even if this results in halting the trials of U.S. soldiers charged in the alleged massacre.

Hebert said he promised the 40 witnesses subpoenaed by his dowment exceeding $15,000,000. "Currently, 38 per cent of the teaching staff hold doctors degrees—double the number of a year ago. The Progress Fund enabled the college to make this significant advance," he said.

John E. Mays, Vice President for Development, told those attending that the objective of the Trustees this year is to increase the number of supporters of the Progress Fund and to seek to develop a higher level of giving among the college's alumni and friends on a sustaining year-to-year basis.

special My Lai subcommittee their testimony would not be released and said Congress' investigating committees cannot be forced by the courts to violate such promises of confidence.

What's more, Hebert said, he had no way to foresee a judge's ruling that would make his subcommittee's secrecy a stumbling block in the current My Lai court-martial of S.Sgt. David Mitchell.

"I'm not stopping these people from talking," he said. "The judge is stopping them from talking. If we could be forced to release that testimony, it would destroy the effectiveness of congressional investigating committees."

Col. George R. Robinson, a military judge at Ft. Hood, Tex., ruled last Thursday that four government witnesses cannot be called against Mitchell unless their testimony to Hebert's subcommittee is released. However, the trial is continuing without those witnesses.

The judge said denial of the prior testimony to the defense could result in a mistrial.

Mitchell is the first soldier to face court-martial in connection with the alleged killing of civilians in the South Vietnamese hamlet of My Lai on March 16 1968. He has pleaded innocent to a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

The prosecution has far more witnesses than the 152 interviewed by Hebert's subcommittee.

Only some of Hebert's 152 witnesses would be court-martial witnesses.

Many testified to Hebert's subcommittee only on the question of whether lower-grade Army and State Department officers tried to cover up the alleged massacre—and the subcommittee issued a stinging report concluding that they did.

G&F Approves Pay Raises

BLYTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The state Game and Fish Commission Monday approved the employe raises authorized by the state legislature effective Jan. 1.

The commission, at a meeting here, also ordered that Lake Bulah in Desha County be closed to all types of commercial netting.

The action was taken at the request of the Mississippi Fish and Game authorities so that regulations on both sides of the border lake would be uniform.

No Knock Is Key Tool of Crime Bill

By MARK BROWN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the most formidable tools in the Nixon administration's new law and order package is known as no knock, a police power civil libertarians say is unconstitutional.

In essence, no knock allows a policeman to enter premises without announcing himself when evidence may be destroyed quickly, when he may be endangered by identifying himself or when announcing himself would be a "useless gesture."

In most cases, a policeman would need a court-issued warrant before making a no knock raid; in a few instances he could act on his own initiative and justify it later.

The provision is contained in the District of Columbia crime bill that goes into effect next February and the drug abuse bill passed by Congress earlier this month but not yet signed by President Nixon.

Opponents of no knock contend that even restrained use would violate the Fourth Amendment protections against invasion of privacy and unreasonable search and seizure. The critics also say abuse could lead to repression of blacks and anti-establishment whites.

But the administration, talking through Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, insists the bills contain adequate safeguards against abuse and that no knock is already legal in some 30 states either by statute or court decisions.

Under the District of Columbia law, officers would be required to show probable cause that a crime was being committed to obtain a no knock warrant; they also must show probable cause that announcing their presence would result in destruction of evidence or danger to themselves or a hostage.

A third situation justifying no knock entry under the bills is one in which warning would be useless. One example is the approach to an open door.

No knock proponents say the tool will most frequently be used in narcotics and gambling raids, when evidence might quickly be destroyed.

Some Visitors May Boycott Nixon Dinner

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.

(AP) — Some of the presidents and premiers invited to President Nixon's dinner Saturday night for the 25th anniversary of the U.N. General Assembly are talking about boycotting the White House affair. They charge that the President snubbed a delegation representing African and other non-aligned nations.

President Kenneth Kaunda of Zambia heads the delegation, which is touring major Western capitals trying to get support for Black Africa's campaign against the white minority governments in southern Africa. The other members of the mission are the foreign ministers of Algeria, Cameroon, Kenya and Mali.

Kaunda told a news conference at U.N. headquarters that

Two performances will be given at the Industrial Area, Old 67 West at 4:15 and 8:00 p.m.

before he left Africa, he was told Nixon would meet the mission in Washington on Oct. 20. But when he got to Rome, he said, he was told Nixon had changed the appointment to 9 a.m. Oct. 19, even though the American President "knew very well" Kaunda was speaking to the General Assembly that morning.

"I suppose he did not want to see our ugly faces," Kaunda told a meeting of Asian and African delegates Monday.

Nixon left Washington Monday on a two-day tour to aid Republican candidates in the November election. An African official told a reporter African and other non-aligned governments sponsoring Kaunda's mission felt Nixon had rebuffed the group.

Webeloe Pack 62 Gets Cookout Equipment

—Hope, (Ark.) Star photos

The Rho Epsilon Chapter of Phi Beta Lambda at the Red River Vocational Technical School presented to the Webeloe Den, Pack 62, a complete cookout camping equipment. The Webeloes are sponsored by the Garland School PTA.

The Webeloes receive no money from any source to purchase equipment. The weekly dues provide funds for craft materials needed in achievement projects. Therefore, Phi Beta Lambda, as a community service project, purchased the necessary equipment for a camp-out. This equipment will be used for the first time on October 24. The Webeloes will leave at noon on October 24 for Cypress Slough at Millwood and return late in the evening on October 25.

The Webeloe Scouts are boys 10 years of age. They meet one night a week from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. in the Scout Hut at Fair Park. There are approximately 16 boys in the Pack at the present time. It is Pack 62's goal to have between 25 and 30 boys in the Pack by the end of the year according to Leader Jess Anderson. Assistant leader is Milo Sweesy. This is the second year that Mr. Anderson has devoted his time to the Webeloes.

Presented to Pack 62 by Pat Walker, Rho Epsilon Chapter President, were the following: 3 skillets, 2 dutch ovens, barbecue culinary set, coffee pot, water keg, ice chest, 3 lanterns, 2 axes, cooking frame, and 150 feet of rope. After the presentation the scouts enjoyed refreshments furnished by one of the mothers. It is through projects such as this that the club hopes to uphold its motto: "Help build a better community through loyalty, integrity, responsibility, honesty, scholarship, thrift, character, citizenship, confidence, initiative, and knowledge."

Gls Testify Mitchell Did Kill Women

By ROBERT HEARD
Associated Press Writer
FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — Two former soldiers say they saw S.Sgt. David Mitchell and 1st Lt. William Calley Jr. pour rifle fire into a ditch crowded with South Vietnamese women, children and old men at My Lai in 1968.

"I seen a woman get hit—the side of her head blown off. After that I walked away," Dennis Conli, 21, a Providence, R.I., truck driver, testified Monday.

Conli and Charles Sledge, 23, of a Sardinia, Miss., luggage plant employee, said they saw Mitchell and Mitchell's platoon leader, Calley, fire short bursts of automatic fire from their M16 rifles into the ditch.

Calley has been ordered court-martialed on charges of murdering 102 unarmed civilians at My Lai. His trial is scheduled to begin at Ft. Benning, Ga., on Nov. 16.

Mitchell, 30, of St. Francisville, La., is charged with assault with intent to commit murder. He could be sentenced to 20 years at hard labor if convicted.

Quebec Liberation Front, or FLQ, the terrorist organization Quebec Liberation Front, or FLQ, the terrorist organization which kidnaped Cross and Laporte in Montreal and murdered the latter last Saturday. Quebec Province was virtually sealed off from the rest of Canada. Military and police helicopters ranged over Montreal, Canada's largest city, and automobiles were stopped at random for identification checks.

By early today, authorities had made 1,827 raids in Quebec and arrested 341 persons since Friday.

In St. Hubert, six miles south of Montreal, officers found a deserted house in which they said Laporte was held for a week, then murdered. It was a green-and-white clapboard bungalow about three-quarters of a mile from the airport parking lot where his body was found late Saturday night, a bullet wound in the head.

Bloodstains on the floor of the house matched Laporte's blood type, police said, and a green work shirt Laporte wore when he was abducted Oct. 10 was in the house. Detective Sgt. Albert Lisacek of the provincial police said the house was the hideout for the Chenier cell of the FLQ, which claimed responsibility for Laporte's abduction.

A neighbor said one of the house's occupants had been Paul Rose, 27, a teacher who is one of two men charged with both kidnappings. The other is Marc Carbonneau, 37, who was associated with a militant taxi drivers' group in Montreal, the Taxi Liberation Movement.

Larey continued until next Monday the charges against Ray T. Allen, the theater owner, and Mrs. Sible Ann Wittington, a clerk at the movie.

Group Discusses Christmas Ideas

Some 120 homemakers met in the Douglas Building to see and hear new Christmas ideas presented by Ethel Bennett, Extension Specialist-Related Arts and Crafts.

This was an activity of the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension Service to help homemakers create a Christmas environment for their family. Many organizational leaders were seeking ideas to use in group work prior to the holiday season.

Dolores McBride, Hempstead

County Extension Home Economist, and Mrs. Alphonso T. Denham, Associate Extension Home Economist, gave the homemakers an opportunity to sign up to be on a mailing list to receive printed information and notification of meetings. According to Miss McBride, the Extension Service is planning some educational efforts to reach homemakers by mail with new homemaking informational helps. Homemakers may also request to be on the Mailing List by calling the Extension office 777-5771.

Another Meet on Millwood Suggested

Some $75,000 for recreation at Millwood Reservoir was in the Public Works Bill, thanks to the efforts of some local interested persons and Senator John L. McClellan.

Credit also should be made to Louis Graves of Nashville, Lloyd Spencer, Vincent Foster, Dr. Lester Sitz, Talbot Feild Jr. and Homer Beyerly of Hope and George Peck of Texarkana.

As Executive Vice President of the Red River Valley Association, Mr. Spencer calls for another area meeting of interested citizens in a letter to Col. Vernon W. Pinkey, Engineer for the Tulsa District. His letter follows:

"Dear Colonel Pinkey: "At the hearing last year at Nashville, Arkansas, where Hempstead and Howard Counties, Arkansas citizens made a plea for construction of additional boat ramps and recreation facilities to serve persons desiring to use the contested east side of Millwood Lake, we were informed that very little money would be available to the Corp for this purpose in 1970 and no encouraging prospects in the year 1971 or soon after.

"In Shreveport this year at the meeting of the Red River Valley Association, the sponsors for improvement and development of the Red River Valley and its tributaries, of which Little River and Millwood Lake are a part, acting as Executive vice president for Arkansas of this association, the Millwood situation was brought to the attention of the officers and directors resulting in a resolution requesting congress to appropriate $75,000.00 for fiscal year 1971 for these much needed recreation facilities.

"With the able assistance of our Senator John L. McClellan, and others, we are now informed that the $75,000.00 request was granted and this money is appropriated by congress for such improvements on Millwood Lake.

Now I feel another hearing is in order so that these same citizens of Hempstead and Howard Counties may be advised as to the development plans the Corp has for the requested facilities for which this money was appropriated. As in the past we have found the Corp of Engineers most cooperative and feel now that we can make greater headway for development of Millwood by working in harmony. " Very truly yours,

Lloyd Spencer

TWA Struck, Some Flights Grounded

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking stewardesses manned picket lines at major American airports today as federal mediators arranged another meeting between Trans World Airlines and the Transportation Workers Union in a renewed bid to settle a contract dispute.

A minute after midnight EDT, stewardesses and pursers began walking off the job at key airports across the nation in a strike grounding TWA's domestic service—about 425 flights daily. TWA had said it would discontinue most international flights.

Neither side would discuss details of wage demands or offers. The dispute also is said to involve work rules and fringe benefits.

Federal mediator Francis A. O'Neill said after extended talks Monday night that an impasse had been reached in efforts to agree on a new contract to replace the three-year pact which expired Aug. 1, 1969. He promptly scheduled another session for today.

TWA said it employs 5,095 hostesses and 281 pursers—who head cabin crews on long-distance flights.

Voicing regret that an agreement could not be reached Monday, TWA President F. C. Wiser Jr. said he hoped "we can reach an early settlement of the dispute."

A union spokesman has said three months of mediation failed to resolve the dispute and members had been waiting for management to make an offer bringing the wages, hours, benefits and working conditions up to standards the union had set on other major airlines.

A Pan American Airlines contract with the union provides top salary of $851 a month for stewardesses and $1,073 for pursers.

President, Gromyko Plan Meet

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Two meetings between Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko have concluded with a date for Gromyko to see President Nixon in Washington Thursday morning.

Rogers' dinner meeting with Gromyko Monday night was described as more cordial than their first session last Friday. And afterward Rogers announced that Nixon had granted Gromyko's request for a meeting, a request made some days ago.

Nixon did not receive Gromyko at the White House when the Russian came to the United States for the U.N. General Assembly last year. Rogers said the Soviet representative is the only one of the many foreign ministers now attending the U.N. fall session to be granted a special White House appointment because he represents the other superpower.

But the secretary said he attached "no specific importance" to the meeting. He said Gromyko had not specified any particular subjects he planned to discuss or indicated whether he was bringing Nixon a message from the Kremlin.

MONTREAL (AP) — With overwhelming parliamentary support, the government continued today Canada's biggest manhunt today for the terrorist murderers of Quebec Labor Minister Pierre Laporte.

There was no new information on James R. Cross, the kidnaped British trade commissioner, but the Quebec government renewed its offer of amnesty for his kidnapers in exchange for his safe return. His captors, a different cell of the Quebec Liberation Front from the cell that kidnaped and killed Laporte, made no reply.

Applause came from all sections of the House of Commons in Ottawa Monday as Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau vowed to subdue the terrorist threat and explained why he revived the War Measures Act on Friday, putting soldiers under police command with almost unlimited arrest and detention powers.

Then the government's leader in Commons, Allan MacEachen, stifled most of any remaining opposition to Trudeau's action by announcing that new legislation to replace the War Measures Act would be introduced within a month. The House endorsed the government's action 190 to 16, with the only dissenting votes coming from the New Democratic party. Four New Democrats broke party lines and voted with the majority.

KENT, Ohio (AP) — The Kent State University Faculty Senate and two student organizations called today for a federal grand jury investigation of disorders at the university last May 1-4 in which four students were killed and nine wounded in a confrontation with the Ohio National Guard.

The appeal was made at about the time another person was served with an indictment returned last week by a special state grand jury which investigated the disorders. Four indictments were served Monday.

Larry A. Shub, 19, of Cleveland Heights, a former Kent State student, reported to the Portage County sheriff's office in Ravenna and was served with an indictment charging first- and second-degree riot and attempting to burn property. He was accompanied by his father, Murray.

Shub was enrolled at Kent State last spring.

The faculty group, the Student Senate and the Graduate Student Council said in a joint statement that the special state grand jury exceeded "the boundaries of its legal responsibilities."

KANSAS CITY (AP) — President Nixon, campaigning for Republicans fighting to win Democratic seats in the Senate, turned the taunts and jeers of youthful hecklers into campaign weaponry Monday in Midwest states. Nixon told audiences they didn't have to make a lot of noise like the hecklers, but implied they should quietly vote against candidates who had "condoned" violence.

18-Year-Old Vote Called Dangerous

By DON McLEOD
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — States opposing the 1970 law giving the vote to 18-year-olds have told the Supreme Court the measure is a dangerous shortcut undermining the constitutional system.

"This is the place where governments make the first shortcuts that eventually lead to their downfall," Arizona Atty. Gen. Gary K. Nelson said Monday.

Nelson sounded the chief opposition theme that a lower voting age, no matter how desirable, should have been accomplished through constitutional amendment.

And U.S. Solicitor General Erwin N. Griswold, defending the new law in an all-day hearing, relayed the reservations of the Nixon administration over the provision giving the vote to 18.

Nasser Man Egypt's Prime Minister

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Informants in Cairo say President AVNWAR Sadat has chosen 70-year-old Mahmoud Fawzi, for 18 years one of President Gamal Abdel Nasser's chief advisers on foreign affairs, to be Egypt's new prime minister.

Fawzi entered Egypt's consular service in 1926 and served in a succession of consular and ambassadorial posts under the monarchy. Six months after the overthrow of King Farouk in 1952, he was named foreign minister and held the post until 1964, when Nasser made him deputy prime minister for foreign affairs. In 1967, he became Nasser's assistant for foreign affairs, a post created for him.

Last April he met with President Nixon as Nasser's personal representative to discuss U.S. efforts to achieve peace in the Middle East.

The semi-official newspaper Al-Ahram said Monday that Sadat had chosen a "prominent personality who enjoys great respect on national and international levels." The newspaper did not say that Fawzi was Sadat's choice, but today it prominently displayed an article reviewing his career.

Al-Ahram said the new prime minister will "have the authority as provided for in the constitution."

5 Persons Are Murdered in a California Home

By DOUG WILLIS
Associated Press Writer

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — The scarf-bound bodies of an eye surgeon, his wife, two sons and a secretary were found shot in the head and tossed into a swimming pool Monday night as fire destroyed the doctor's $250,000 home.

In Saratoga 30 miles away, a gas station attendant was found bound and fatally shot in the back of the head two hours later in his station. He was identified as Thomas S. Dececco, 19.

Officers would not say if they believe the slayings were related. Sheriff Douglas James of Santa Cruz County said only that he was contacting officials in Saratoga about that case.

Mud and poor visibility from the first rain of the season hampered the search for clues in the five Santa Cruz County deaths. Each had been shot once in the back of the head and the physician had a second wound in the upper back.

"We have no motive," he said. Patches of blood stained the cement apron around the pool. Two cars blocked the grounds to the house, between Santa Cruz and Sequel about 100 miles south of San Francisco.

No notes or other signs left by the killers were reported discovered and James said no sign of struggle was found in the house.

The victims were Dr. Victor M. Ohta, 45, his wife, Virginia, 43; their sons, Derik, 12, and Taggart, 11, and Dr. Ohta's secretary, Dorothy Cadwallader, 38.

The Ohtas had two teen-age daughters who were not at home. The sheriff declined to give any details on them.

At about 8:10 p.m., two sheriff's deputies noticed smoke and went to the $250,000 hilltop home which had two entrance roads.

One driveway was blocked by Dr. Ohta's Rolls Royce, the other by Mrs. Cadwallader's Lincoln Continental. The officers said the fire had been burning for some time.

Firemen were summoned and the bodies were discovered by Live Oak Fire Chief Ted Pound.

The sheriff said he believed the death bullets came from a .30-caliber weapon.

The hands of all the victims were tied with scarves. The bodies of Dr. Ohta and his wife were on the bottom of the pool, the other victims floating on the surface.

James said it appeared the fire was set after the slayings, apparently to call attention to the deaths. James said it appeared more than one person was involved in the killings.

Claims 129 Enemy Troops Are Killed

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese forces reported today that they killed 129 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong and captured 30 in a series of clashes south of Da Nang while suffering light casualties themselves.

But enemy forces in the area posed a serious threat to an allied Special Forces camp 26 miles southwest of Da Nang and to the district town of Thuong Duc, a mile to the east. Both the camp, which is on a plateau, and the town appeared to be under enemy rocket and mortar siege.

Field reports said the camp was being hit with mortars today and that the enemy positions appeared to be close to the perimeter. Helicopter gunships raked the suspected mortar positions with rockets, but low clouds prevented heavier strikes by jet fighter-bombers.

The camp and the town have been under frequent shelling attack for more than a week.

The allies claimed the heavy enemy casualties in a series of clashes 23 to 90 miles south of Da Nang. Three South Vietnamese soldiers were reported killed and 18 wounded in the fights, while the U.S. Command said there were no American casualties. But four Americans were reported killed and 21 wounded in scattered clashes and by booby traps and mines in other sectors of Vietnam.

Despite the claim of 129 enemy dead, only 21 weapons and eight hand grenades were reported recovered from the battlefields. This raised some doubt about the accuracy of the body count, but military spokesmen said many of the enemy were killed by bombers, helicopter gunships and artillery.
